Sub: Invitation to Display Technical textiles products at Techtextil 2017 - Frankfurt

Dear Member,

As you are aware, Technical textiles forms an important part of textiles globally and domestically. In fact, many believes that the future of the textile industry in the next few decades will be determined by its performance in the area of technical textiles. There is huge opportunity in the emerging world market for technical textiles and it is time for India to exploit fully the market potential for technical textiles. The Government of India is also extending all kinds of support for the development and export of technical textiles.

Recognizing the importance of this sector, TEXPROCIL is carrying out extensive programmes to promote exports of technical textiles including participation in major International fairs.

In this regard, Techtextil is a trade fair organized by Messe Frankfurt every two years. This year the fair will be held in Frankfurt in May 2015 - details of which are as under:
