Date: Friday, 7th May, 2021 | Time: 5:00 pm onwards

To: Members of the Council

Sub : Seminar on Training and Skilling: A Win-Win Strategy for Employer and Employee on 7th May, 2021 at 5 pm

Dear Member,

Texprocil is jointly organizing a virtual Seminar on ‘Training and Skilling: A Win-Win Strategy for Employer and Employee’ with the Textile Sector Skill Council (TSC) on 7th May at 5 pm. The TSC is an industry driven non-profit organization facilitating the imparting of the right kind of training to workers on the emerging state-of art technologies.

TSC is committed to develop world class skilled manpower for all segments of textile manufacturing starting from spinning to fabric finishing which include organized mill sector, power loom industry and handlooms.

The Seminar will be an opportunity for active involvement of all stakeholders to carry out skilling operations and more importantly enable them to derive monetary benefits from state and central government funded skill development schemes.

Why Attend the Seminar:

- Understand the opportunities available for textile manufacturing units, including mills and SMEs, to get reimbursement towards the training cost of employees.

- Stay informed about the various Govt. schemes available for skilling and training and their monetary benefits
- Know more about the benefits to employees
- Learn about the various national standards available for different segments of textile mills and how mills can take it up for training their workmen.
- Help in a better understanding of the seamless and paperless process and logistics of becoming a part of the skill ecosystem.
