Sub : Virtual B2B Meeting with Embassy of India, Hanoi and Vietnamese importers

Dear Member,

As you may be aware, under the able leadership of the Hon'ble Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modiji, the Department of Commerce has set an ambitious but achievable export merchandise target of US$ 400 billion for FY 2021-22.

Considering the above and in an effort to boost the export of cotton textiles to Vietnam, the Embassy of India in Hanoi, Vietnam and the Consulate General of India, Ho Chi Minh City have contacted the Council and proposed a virtual BSM meeting between Indian textile exporters and Vietnamese importers on 22nd November at 2.00 pm (India Time).

In order to take this forward, the Indian Mission has requested the Council to submit the names and profiles including products of member companies who are interested in exploring the Vietnamese market. Based on the profile of the interested Indian suppliers the Indian Missions will find matching Vietnamese companies who wish to partner with Indian suppliers.

Members interested in participating in the B2B meetings may kindly fill the enclosed form (Click here) latest by 8th November.

Regards,

Dr. Siddhartha Rajagopal
Executive Director
