Sub : Inviting collaboration from Indian companies for Investment in Apparel Sector in Egypt

Dear Member,

The Council is in receipt of a mail from the Embassy of India in Cairo regarding opportunities for Indian companies to set up ready-made garments and apparels in Egypt. The Egyptian company interested in inviting collaborations from India is the El Sewedy Industrial Development, a subsidiary of El Sewedy Group with 80-years expertise in Industrialisation and Manufacturing in Egypt.

Elsewedy Industrial Development has built a strong presence throughout Egypt, with multiple projects covering varied strategic geographical and industrial niches. Through their ongoing expansion programs, the Group continues to build a global brand that enables businesses from all industries to grow, develop and thrive.

The El Sewedy Group currently has the opportunity to develop, operate & promote the textile city on an area of 2 million square meters in Sadat city in Egypt, and intends to check the opportunity to cooperate with investors and manufacturers from India and benefit from Indian experiences in the field of RMG / Apparels.

Any queries in this regard may kindly be sent to El Sewedy Group (contact details below) with a copy to the Indian Mission (com.cairo@mea.gov.in).
