Sub: Inviting participation in Stakeholders' interaction on Vision 2047 - Textile Industry_(21 March 2024).

Dear Member,

The textile industry plays a pivotal role in the overall socio-economic development of India, contributing significantly to employment generation and exports. Government of India in association with stakeholders of the Textile Industry has undertaken series of initiatives aimed at the overall development of the textile ecosystem in India. To commemorate the 100th year of independence, the Government of India has started work on a vision for an 'Aatmanirbhar Bharat'.

On the journey towards Viksit Bharat, the Ministry believes that it is imperative to engage with key stakeholders to ensure a comprehensive and inclusive roadmap. With Vision 2047 as a theme, the aim to not only sustain but also enhance the growth trajectory of this vital sector. The expertise and perspective of the stakeholders are invaluable as ambitious yet realistic targets for 2047 and the next 5 years are planned.

In this regard, Ministry of Textiles is pleased to extend its invitation for discussions on Vision 2047. The Interaction is scheduled on 21st March 2024, at Hall no VB-022 (Ground Floor), Vanijya Bhawan, New Delhi from 10:30 AM onwards.

You may also join the discussion virtually and the Agenda and Link are attached (click here) for your reference.

During the interaction, detailed discussions will be held on various aspects such as

- Infrastructure, Technology & Investment,
- Labour, Productivity & Quality,
- Sustainability,
- Marketing & Brand Promotion and
- Research & Innovation

Your participation will greatly contribute to the success of this endeavour and overall development of the industry.

We request you to confirm your participation (latest by today evening 5 pm) by filling
