Sub: Invitation to Participate in SAMVAD on GST 2.0 – Southern Region

Dear Member,

We wish to inform you that the Directorate General of Goods & Services Tax (DGGST), Southern Zonal Unit, Chennai proposes to conduct a SAMVAD on GST 2.0 with stakeholders of the Southern Region through Video Conference.

The SAMVAD aims to strengthen trust between taxpayers and GST administration, improve systems and procedures, promote Ease of Doing Business and identify policy and compliance-related issues under GST 2.0.

States/UTs covered: Tamil Nadu, Kerala, Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh, Telangana and Puducherry

Members from the above States are requested to participate and share their GST-related issues/suggestions in advance, particularly on:

- GST administration and procedural challenges
- Systemic bottlenecks
- Policy-related issues impacting Ease of Doing Business
- Practical solutions and suggestions for GST 2.0

Inputs are required to be submitted in writing through the following Google Form sent by DGGST. (click here)

Members willing to participate may also be required to share their name, designation, contact number and email ID, as a WhatsApp group of participants is proposed to be created by DGGST for coordination.

The date and VC link for the SAMVAD will be shared shortly by them.

All members are requested to submit their inputs on or before 15 January 2026.

We request all concerned members to participate, as this is an important platform to place industry concerns directly before the GST administration.

Regards,

Dr. Siddhartha Rajagopal
Executive Director
