Sub : Technical specifications required for cotton bags for packing food grains

Dear Member,

With a view to increase domestic consumption of cotton fabrics, the Industry associations have submitted a representation to the Ministry of Textiles to encourage use of cotton bags for packing food grains by the Food Corporation of India (FCI). In this regard, in the absence of BIS standard for bags for packing food grains by FCI & public distribution, BIS has requested the following details for formulation of Indian Standard on cotton fabrics which can be used for packing food grains:

- > The technical specification data of the cotton bags for various capacities as per the Table attached (click here); and
- > The field trial reports on the performance of bags after filling the foodgrain, it is meant for.

Members manufacturing cotton bags are requested to fill up the technical specification in the attached format and send back to ravi@texprocil.org latest by Friday, 5th June 2020, so as to enable the Council to consolidate and submit to BIS.

Regards,

Dr. Siddhartha Rajagopal

Executive Director
