Sub : Almus Rupee Money Conference 2020 – December 15-16, 2020

Dear Member,

Almus Risk Consulting, Mumbai, will be conducting the 7th Almus Annual Conference 2020 (Virtual) on December 15 & 16, 2020 .

The theme this year is "From the margin to the mainstream – Roadmap to an efficient Forex and Bond Markets". The objective of the Conference is to create a market place (Forex & Bond) that work for all and give equal opportunity to all market participants, more so to small and medium enterprise. The conference acts as a catalyst to bring desired reforms for financial sector development. The conference is mentored by Mr G Padmanabhan, former Executive Director, RBI & NSE is the Principal Partner.

About the Conference:

The Conference is proposed to be addressed by the Luminaries of the Financial Markets from India and across the Globe. We expect a healthy debate by the stalwarts of the industry from Regulators, Bankers, Economists, Corporates sharing their experience and knowledge. The range of subjects being covered include - FX markets, Bond Markets, Payment Systems, Global Regulatory changes like LIBOR transition, Global Markets Technical Analysis and more. The participants are MD / CEO / CFOs / Treasury Heads / Bankers / Exchange Members.

About Almus:

Almus Risk Consulting, Mumbai, is a leading risk management company, whose specific focus is on serving companies in MSME sector. Almus was established in August 2012 pioneering the unique solution of outsourcing corporate treasury operations, with particular focus on managing currency, commodity and currency risks. We have clientele of over 200 spread across various industries and regions. In addition to its regular engagement with individual companies, Almus, headed by partners widely experienced in Banks (public, private, MNC) /corporate treasuries, expanded its role into initiating development of the Indian financial markets and for this purpose we created a forum called Almus Annual Conference (now named Almus Rupee Money Conference).
