Sub.: Enabling clearance of export consignments to Indonesia without production of original documents

Dear Member,

This is to inform you that the Indonesian Customs has given flexibility in the utilization of preferential tariff treatment under FTAs implemented by Indonesia, including ASEAN INDIA FREE TRADE AGREEMENT (AIFTA), with the announcement of DG Circular number: SE-07/BC/2020. A copy of relevant Indonesian circular No. SE 07/BC/2020 dated 30.03.2020 alongwith unofficial English translation is attached for reference. \(Click here\)

It regulates that to gain the preferential tariff treatment:

(1) The importer needs to submit the COO electronically to Customs, by email or other electronic methods, within 30 (thirty) calendar days from the date of import declaration. The COO submitted electronically to Customs is the colour scanned version of the original COO along with the other supporting documents in format as attached \(Click here\).

(2) Notwithstanding with paragraph 1, Importer shall submit the hardcopy of original COO to Customs, along with other supporting documents, within 90 (ninety) calendar days after the date of import declaration.

Exporters may kindly note the above relaxations regarding export to Indonesia.

Regards,

Dr. Siddhartha Rajagopal
Executive Director
