It gives us great pleasure in informing you that TEXPROCIL is now ISO 9001:2015 certified organisation.

The ISO Standard which focuses on continual improvement will help TEXPROCIL strengthen its activities and enhance its quality of service by identifying the needs and enabling the designing of the appropriate development programs on a regular basis for the members. The ISO 9001 QMS also improves the communication within the organization and with all the stakeholders and other interested parties.

One of the key elements of the ISO standard is receiving feedback from the members. Enclosed is a 'Members Feedback Form' seeking your rating of the various services offered by the Council.
