Sub.: Stock information from Exporters of Home Textiles / Made-ups

Dear Member,

With reference to discussion at a Webinar organised by the Buying Agents Association (BAA) on 23rd April 2020, and as a part of a joint effort to help the exporting community during these trying times, BAA is taking the initiative to help spread information about stocks available with exporters of Home Textiles / Made-ups, due to recent cancellations of orders owing to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Members stuck with goods due to cancellation of orders may send below information to Texprocil at info@texprocil.org. Texprocil will consolidate all the details and share with the BAA and thereby their customers about the stock that is available at hand.

Stock details – Please send an excel / Ppt file giving details of stock mentioning below details

- Picture of products
- Item No
- Size
- Stock Qty available
- Price / Material is optional and exporters may decide to share it individually on request if they don't wish to share it with the complete fraternity

Contact details- Please ensure that your contact details are clearly mentioned in the first slide of the ppt / on top of the excel file with below mentioned details

- Name of the Company
- Contact person's name

- Contact No
- Email ID
- Address of the Company
- Please do not share any further company information. Interested members shall directly touch base with you to get the same

Once we forward the above information, BAA will upload the information on a common google drive which will be sent as a "View Only" option to their members. If any members of BAA likes the product, then they will individually get in touch with the relevant exporter to get further details / discuss possibilities.

Disclaimer : TEXPROCIL & BAA do not guarantee any sale of stock but shall only disseminate the required information. We request all exporters to conduct their due diligence while closing any deal on stocks. TEXPROCIL & BAA shall only be acting as an information source and shall not participate in any form in individual transactions / dealings between exporters and buying agents.

Regards,
