- It replaces the earlier SWIFT system, which mainly functioned as a document repository (Digital storage system for uploading, keeping and accessing documents).

Key features include

- Online submission of additional data and documents for obtaining No Objection Certificates (NOCs),
- Real-time tracking via dashboards,
- Automated SMS/email updates,

The booklet provides comprehensive guidance on the SWIFT system, including procedures, documentation requirements, and key functionalities relevant for stakeholders engaged in international trade.

In this regard, we are sharing herewith the Link of SWIFT Booklet (<https://www.icegate.gov.in/advisory/swift-booklet>) for your kind reference and necessary action.

We request you to go through the contents of the booklet and make effective use of the SWIFT facility in your import/export operations. This may please be treated as important for compliance and operational efficiency.
