Sub: DGFT Public Notice No. 10/2026-27 – Amendment in Appendix 2B for issuance of Preferential Certificates of Origin under India-UK CETA

Dear Madam / Sir,

DGFT has issued Public Notice No. 10/2026-27 dated 11th May 2026 (copy enclosed) regarding amendment of Appendix 2B of the Foreign Trade Policy (FTP) 2023.

The Public Notice notifies the list of authorised agencies permitted to issue Preferential Certificates of Origin (CoO) under the India-United Kingdom Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement (India-UK CETA).

As per the notification, the authorised agencies assigned include DGFT and its Regional Authorities, Export Inspection Council/Agencies (All products), Textile Committee (Textiles and Clothing) while APEDA, MPEDA, Spices Board, Tobacco Board, Development Commissioner (Handicrafts), Central Silk Board, Coir Board and various Special Economic Zones are for specified product categories.

Members exporting goods to the United Kingdom under the India-UK CETA may take note of the authorised agencies eligible to issue Preferential Certificates of Origin for availing preferential tariff benefits under the Agreement.

Regards,

Dr. Siddhartha Rajagopal
Executive Director
